

Student course

Driving Sustainable Innovation

Training programme for students on Green Transition, Effective Communication and Entrepreneurship

Why take the course?

- Gain tools to design innovative green solutions

- Learn how to communicate ideas clearly and effectively

- Build practical skills for your future career in innovation

- Connect with students across Europe and expand your international network

- Earn 2 ECTS from a programme certified by 4 European universities

Registration open

25 September
– 13 October

Courses Start

20 October

Credits

2 ECTS

Register now

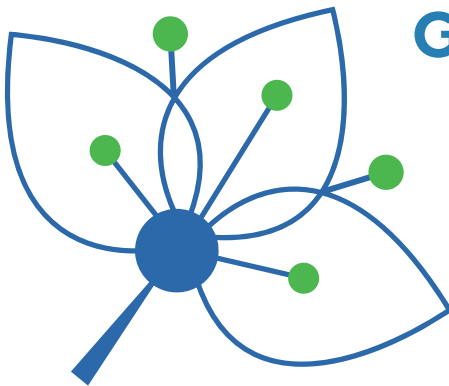

Become the next-generation leader in sustainability and innovation

Develop the skills, mindset, and knowledge to contribute to sustainable businesses, innovative projects, and green leadership. Work on real-world challenges, join interactive activities, and collaborate with students across Europe.

Explore these 4 interactive modules this semester:

Foundations of Green Transition & Sustainability

Green Communication Skills

Sustainable Start-Ups

Resilience in Economics & Management

Key assets for your future career in innovation

- ▶ Practical experience with case studies and teamwork on real-world challenges
- ▶ Cutting-edge insights into sustainability, innovation, and future business models
- ▶ Enhanced problem-solving, communication, and leadership skills valued in the job market
- ▶ Extended international network of future innovators